“Unlawful Downspout Connection” shall mean any connection, installed or maintained, constructed or cause to permit, drainage from any roof water leader or downspout that conveys storm water from any new or reconstructed residential, industrial, commercial or institutional buildings directly or indirectly to a sanitary, combined or storm sewer connection for the purpose of storm water drainage.

Restrictions

1. No person shall construct, install or maintain, or cause or permit to be constructed, installed or maintained, drainage from any roof water leader or downspout that conveys storm water from any new or reconstructed residential, industrial, commercial or institutional buildings directly or indirectly to a sanitary, combined or storm sewer connection for the purpose of storm water drainage with the exception of one (1) as determined by the Chief Building Official in a residential area as defined.
2. The Town may disconnect any building drainage system connected in contravention of section 1 from a municipal sewer – or any sewer system tributary thereto – and no such disconnection shall be subsequently reconnected except with the written consent of the Town.
3. Where there has been subsequent reconnection without the Town’s written consent, the Town may without notice disconnect the building drainage system from any municipal sewer – or any sewer system tributary thereto – with all associated costs, fees and charges for the disconnection being borne by the owner of the respective property. The costs will be added to the tax roll for the respective property and collected in the same manner as taxes.
4. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this By-law, where compliance with this By-law would have hazardous repercussions, the owner of property may request temporary exemption from this By-law’s provisions in the form and manner specified by the Town.

Exemptions

5. This By-law does not apply to properties zoned (A) agricultural as defined in the Town's Zoning By-law 1999-52 as amended from time to time.
6. In accordance with section 4, if the owner believes that section 1 will have hazardous repercussions, they may appeal to the order to Town Council by filing an appeal with the Clerk within fourteen (14) days of the date of the notice.

Enforcement

7. No person shall prevent, hinder or obstruct, or attempt to hinder or obstruct an Officer who is exercising a power or performing a duty under this By-law.
8. If an Officer is satisfied that a contravention of this By-law has occurred, he or she may make an order requiring the person who contravened the By-law or who caused or permitted the contravention or the owner or occupier of the land on which the contravention occurred, to discontinue the contravening activity.
9. An order under section 8 shall set out:
  - (a) reasonable particulars of the contravention adequate to identify the contravention and the location on the land on which the contravention occurred; and
  - (b) the date by which there must be compliance with the order.
10. If an Officer is satisfied that a contravention of this By-law has occurred, he or she may make an order requiring the person who contravened the By-law or who caused or permitted the contravention or the owner or occupier of the land on which the contravention occurred, to do work to correct the contravention.
11. An order under section 10 shall set out:
  - (a) reasonable particulars of the contravention adequate to identify the contravention and the location of the land on which the contravention occurred; and
  - (b) the work to be completed; and
  - (c) the date by which the work must be complete.
12. An order made under sections 8 or 10 may be served personally or by registered mail to the last known address of:
  - (a) the person who caused, created or permitted the offence; and
  - (b) the owner or occupier of the lands where the contravention occurred.
13. Where an owner or occupier of the land on which the contravention occurred, who has been served with an order and fails to comply with the order, then an Officer, or any authorized agent on behalf of the Town may enter on the land at any reasonable time and complete the work required to bring the land into compliance with the provisions of this By-law as set out in the order.
14. Where the work required to bring the land into compliance with the By-law has been performed by or for the Town, the costs incurred in doing the work may be collected by action or the costs may be added to the tax roll for the land and collected in the same manner as taxes.

15. An Officer may enter on land, and into buildings, at any reasonable time for the purpose of carrying out an inspection to determine whether any provision of this By-law or an order made under this By-law is being complied with, although an Officer may not enter into a private residence or dwelling unit.

Offence and Penalty

16. Every person who contravenes any provision of this By-law is guilty of an offence and shall, upon conviction, be subject to a penalty under the provisions of the Provincial Offences Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.33, as amended.

17. Any person other than a corporation who contravenes any provision of this By-law or who fails to comply with an order made under this By-law or who obstructs or attempts to obstruct an Officer in carrying out his or her duties under this By-law is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a maximum fine of $5,000 for a first offence, and a maximum fine of $10,000 for a subsequent offence.

18. Any corporation which contravenes any provision of this By-law or who fails to comply with an order made under this By-law or who obstructs or attempts to obstruct an Officer in carrying out his or her duties under this By-law is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a maximum fine of $50,000 for a first offence and $100,000 for any subsequent offence.

19. This By-law shall come into force and take effect on the day of the final passing thereof.

Read a first, second and third time and finally passed this 27th day of March, 2023
